

DAGGER IN THE LIBRARY

The Crime Writers' Association Dagger in the Library Award is awarded to "the crime fiction author whose work is currently giving the greatest enjoyment to readers," nominated by UK libraries and Readers' Groups and judged by a panel of librarians.

All libraries whose nominated authors are shortlisted will be entered into a draw for two free tickets to the Daggers awards ceremony at the Theakstons Old Peculier Crime Writing Festival in July.

All library readers' groups that nominate the winning author will be entered in a draw for a £300 prize, which will go to buy books for the winning group.

Each individual library or Readers' Group may nominate up to three authors. Supporting statements are welcome.

Nomination forms can be downloaded from www.thecwa.co.uk/daggers/library

Nominations should be on a library's headed paper, or on plain paper endorsed with the library stamp. Closing date for nominations is 9th April 2010.

Nominations should be sent, to arrive by the closing date, to: Dagger in the Library Award, PO Box 220 Hexham NE46 9ET
